Treasures Report:

N/A

Old Business:

Lease Agreement: We haven't signed a lease agreement. Cheque's have been dropped off to pay up to the end of the season.

Winter Games Update:

Leelen has submitted the excel sheets required.

Don Corrigan will be the assistant coach.

Brae is the official chaperone for the girls.

Cost is $235/judoka ($$235 \times 6(\text{judoka}) = \1410)

Each zone is supposed to have a G2G session where all sports participating in the Winter Games come together to discuss expectations and how to prepare. Leelen will look further into this as there isn't one planned for the Kootenay's yet.

Upcoming Kamloops Tournament:

Leelen has canopy on his truck.

Laura is working hard on the menu.

Laura will touch base with the people who need to bring extra bedding.

Bring swimsuits and towels.

Food Prep Thursday Jan 30th at Laura's house.

Will try to arrange for everyone to leave together in the morning (7am?).

Release forms for Brody, Evan, and Lawson.

Fundraising:

Cash Calendar:

Sold all 300 calendars!

$4000 profit less the $25 gaming licence.

$350 was donated back to the club by winners.

Money will be used towards utilities, rent etc.

300 was a good number of calendars to sell.

Bottle Sorting:

Great turnout, made over $1400.

New Business:

Upcoming Tournaments and Training:

Kamloops Jan 31st-Feb 2nd

BCWG Feb 20th-23rd

$235/judoka

Vernon April 3rd-5th

Raymond May 2nd

Lethbridge Training Camp May 2nd

Competing athletes and chaperones will have priority in accommodations.

Spring Break:

Leelen will check his schedule and decide which dates Judo will run through Spring Break.

March 21st Laura will host a Sleepover Movie night at the Dojo.

Year End Wrap Up: What, where, when.

Centennial Park

Laura will book the gazebo with picnic tables.

May 28th @ 4:30pm

Hotdogs, hamburgers provided by club.

Potluck

Awards and games.

Laura will bring BBQ (2).

Awards (Medals, Certificates):

Laura will look into ordering the same trophies as last year,($17+tax) need 7.

Kary will print more belt certificates.

Coaching Clinic (dates, venue):

The club would like Monroe, Cheyann, and Brae to attend.

Any weekend in June will work.

Kary will call Invermere and Fernie to see if there is any interest.

Kary will look into requirements, like minimum number of participants.

Look at Columbia Basin Trust to help with cost.

Kidsport Payments:

Not everyone who has applied for Kidsport or other similar programs has been approved. Parents will need to pay for their child's judo until payments have come in, the club will then reimburse them for overpayment.

Membership Fee Schedule for next year:

Club should consider increasing monthly payments next year to encourage parents to pay for the full season. This will save time chasing and processing payments.

Kary Booth makes a motion for the club to cover the cost of Master Sylvio Behring's Seminar, for all Sensei who would like to attend. Approximate cost would be $65/each.
Erin Rogne Seconds the motion.

All in favour.
